Acknowledgment is the latest in a string of awards and recognitions bestowed upon Schlage in 2010

CARMEL, IN, September 14, 2010 – Schlage® is the number one brand in locksets when it comes to “brand familiarity,” “brands used in the past 2 years” and “brands used the most,” according to Remodeling magazine’s 2010 Brand Use Study, which surveyed 8,250 remodelers about the brands they use in 46 product categories, ranging from bath accessories to kitchen appliances to windows.

This is the tenth recognition or award Schlage has received so far in 2010.

Remodelers were asked to rate the brands they use and in the Locksets/Hardware category Schlage scored an impressive 96% for “brand familiarity.” Participants were also asked which brands they “used in the past two years” and which brands they “use the most.” In the locksets category, 89% of the respondents said they had used Schlage products in the past two years and 53% said Schlage was the brand they used most overall; the second most-used brand had a 42% response.

Sponsored by Hanley Wood, the publisher of Remodeling, the national survey was conducted by mail between April 12 and May 27, 2010 by Readex Research, an independent firm based in Stillwater, MN.
